

PARENTING TEENS

How to Parent Your Teenage Children

The teenage years are some of the most challenging and significant years in a person's life.

Join us for this multi-session workshop to learn how you can better support and understand your child as he or she grows.

This 4-week (Korean) workshop will be held on Mondays, from 12:30 – 2:30 pm, starting on Feb. 19 – March 19, 2018

Space is limited – Register early

To register please contact:

Jin Park, jinp@nsms.ca, 604.973.0455, 604.988.2931

This program is government funded and free of charge.

Highlights

In this 4-week workshop you will:

- Understand and emphasize immigrant youth's challenges
- Better understand teens and explore communication skills
- Share experiences and thoughts with the group and discuss possible solutions

This program will be presented in Korean

Details

North Shore
Multicultural Society
207-123 East 15th Street
North Vancouver
Multi-Purpose Room,
3rd floor

Mondays (4 sessions)
February 19, 26,
March 12, 19
12:30 – 2:30 pm

Tel: 604.988.2931

Fax: 604.988.2960

Email: office@nsms.ca

www.nsms.ca

www.facebook.com/nsmsbc

Funded by:

Financé par :

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Immigration, Réfugiés et Citoyenneté Canada