

CAREER FOCUS FOR PROFESSIONAL IMMIGRANT WOMEN

Are you a foreign-trained professional who would like to return to your field in BC?

Eligibility: Female professional newcomers who are permanent residents, convention refugees and protected persons, with an English level of at least CLB 5

We provide:

- Needs assessment and appropriate referrals
- Information and orientation
- 1-1 assistance and workshops in the areas of career exploration, job search strategies and tools, and the Canadian workplace

Upcoming workshops (Thursdays, 12:30pm – 2:30pm):

- Creating Effective Resumes (February 21)
- Making Professional Connections (February 28)
- Canadian Workplace Culture & Communication (March 7)
- Preparing for Employment Fairs (March 14)

For more information and to register contact:

Celia Brookfield, celiab@nsms.ca, 604.988.2931

This program is government funded and free of charge.

Details

The Career Focus program can assist you in:

- Learning what you can do to return to your field
- Understanding different work options available to you
- Developing an action plan
- Creating professional, effective job search tools
- Understanding local workplace culture and communication

Location

North Shore

Multicultural Society
100 - 123 East 15th Street
North Vancouver

Tel: 604.988.2931

Fax: 604.988.2960

Email: office@nsms.ca

www.nsms.ca

www.facebook.com/nsmsbc