

Finding Your First Professional Job in Canada

Getting your career back in Canada can be a real challenge! Most new immigrants have a lot of work experience in their home country, but start in a survival job to get used to the Canadian workplace. This workshop series provides you with the skills to find your way back into the job market.

Tuesday, March 12 and Thursday, March 14

5:00pm - 7:00pm

North Shore Multicultural Society

Who can attend this workshop?

- Work Permit Holders
- International Students
- Must have English level CLB 6 or higher

For more information and to register, contact:

Masha Rademakers

mashar@nsms.ca or 604-988-2931 ext. 242

Highlights:

- Job search strategies
- Resume and cover letter writing
- Creating a professional profile
- Interview skills
- Creating an elevator pitch
- Networking