

MENTORING SESSION FOR NURSES

EMPLOYMENT MENTORING PROGRAM

If you are an internationally educated nurse who has not been registered in Canada, you may be eligible for registration to practice as a registered nurse in B.C. You are welcome to join our Employment on December 12.

In this session you will get some important information regarding the process of becoming a registered nurse and also other available opportunities in this field in B.C.

Speakers:

Adeleh Nabavian and Zahar Dehghani, Internationally Educated Nurses

For more information and to register contact

This program is government funded and free of charge.

The Employment Mentoring program can help you to:

- Meet a Canadian Professional from your field
- Understand different work options available to you
- Learn what you can do to return to your field
- Meet other new immigrants with whom you can share your stories, experiences and successes
