

Neonology Leadership Youth Mural Event

What does acceptance mean to you? How can we be more accepting of others in our community? Come and share your ideas through creative art! This mural painting event will be led by the Neonology Leadership youth graduates, as an initiative to build community on the North Shore!

Friday, February 15 5:00pm - 8:00pm

North Vancouver City Library, 3rd floor Program Room

Drop in event, registration is not required.

This event is open anyone who would like to share their thoughts around the idea of acceptance by contributing to a mural.

Neonology Leadership Youth Mural Event

What does acceptance mean to you? How can we be more accepting of others in our community? Come and share your ideas through creative art! This mural painting event will be led by the Neonology Leadership youth graduates, as an initiative to build community on the North Shore!

Friday, February 15 5:00pm - 8:00pm

North Vancouver City Library, 3rd floor Program Room

Drop in event, registration is not required.

This event is open anyone who would like to share their thoughts around the idea of acceptance by contributing to a mural.

