

Immigrant Women's Health

In these workshops, immigrant women over 18 will learn important information about health care, provincial and community health resources, and more.

Schedule:

1. Saturday, February 23, 10:30am – 12:30pm: BC Medical System for 4 types of Gynecological Cancer:
 - Speaker: Shaina Lee, Gynecologic oncology fellow of UBC/BC Cancer Agency/VGH
2. Friday, March 1, 12:30pm – 2:30pm: Healthy Eating and Balanced Diet for Family
 - Speaker: Helen Leung, VCH Public Health Dietician

For more information, or to register contact:

Jin Park, jinp@nsms.ca or 604-973-0455 or 604-988-2931

This program is government funded and free of charge.

Details

- For immigrant women, over 18 years, living on the North Shore
- Provide in-depth information about high interest health care areas
- Facilitate access to provincial and community health care resources and medical systems
- Open to PR, citizen and refugees

This program will be presented in English and Korean.

Location & Date

North Shore
Multicultural Society
123 East 15th Street
North Vancouver

Saturday, February 23
10:30am – 12:30pm

Friday, March 1
12:30pm – 2:30pm

Tel: 604.988.2931
Fax: 604.988.2960
Email: office@nsms.ca

www.nsms.ca
www.facebook.com/nsmsbc

Funded by:

Financé par :

Citizenship and Immigration Canada

Citoyenneté et
Immigration Canada